

ALEXANDER ORR, ONLY A WEEK ILL, DIES IN 84TH YEAR

Long Held Positions of High Trust and Honored as Public-Spirited Citizen.

ADVOCATE OF SUBWAYS.

Succeeded McCall as President of New York Life Insurance Company at Half Salary.

Alexander E. Orr, for many years a leader among the public spirited citizens of New York, died at 1:45 on this morning of heart failure and old age at his home, No. 102 Benson street, Brooklyn. Although he was in his eighty-fourth year he did not discontinue his business activities until a year and a half ago, and he appeared to be in good health up to the late spring. About a week ago he became so ill that he was unable to leave his bed and Dr. Mc-Corkle, the family physician, informed the family that Mr. Orr's days were numbered.

Mr. Orr is survived by three daughters, Mrs. James B. Nies, Mrs. Albert H. Munell and Miss M. M. Orr. The funeral will be held on Friday morning at 11 o'clock at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church in Clinton street, Brooklyn. Bishop Burgess and Dr.
Johnson, the pastor of the church, will officiate. The body will be buried in the Orr family plot in Greenwood Cemetery.

Alexander E. Orr was one of the distinguished rich men of America.
He had been president of the New York Life Insurance Company, the Chamber of Commerce and the Produce Exchange and of the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners of New York, who carried through the building of the first subway. He was also president of the Safe Deposit and Storage Company and the South Brooklyn Savings Institution, a Civil Service Commissioner of Brooklyn and, for many years, a prominent
circles of New York City.

He was born at Stranaboe, County Tyrone, Ireland, on March 2, 1831. His early education was by tutors and he came to New York in 1851, where he began his business career as a clerk in the shipping office of William Elphinstone. In 1857 he married Miss Juliet Buckingham Down, and after her death he married in 1873 Miss Margaret S. Luquer.

Mr. Orr's abilities gave him prominence and in 1859 he became a member of the Produce Exchange and secretary of its Building Committee.
Two years after this he rose to a partnership in the firm of David Dows & Co., by which means he stepped to a position of importance in Wall street.

When John A. McCall resigned the presidency of the New York Life in 1905, Mr. Orr was elected to succeed him, and he took the position at $50,000 a year, just half what had been paid to McCall. In 1907 he resigned the presidency, although the directors sought to have him remain. The following year he gave up his post on the company's board of directors.
At this time he also gave up the vice-presidency of the Delaware and Hudson Company and the Mechanics' National Bank.

When Samuel J. Tilden was Governor of New York he appointed Mr.
Orr a member of the State Canal Commission in 1875. Although a steadfast Tilden Democrat, Mr. Orr supported McKinley in 1896 and 1900 and Roosevelt in 1904.

For a long time Mr. Orr had lived in retirement in his Brooklyn home.

ALL DEALERS IN FOOD MUST OBEY THE CODE.

Health Board Prepares to Protect the Public in Every Possible Way.

The Board of Health intends to hold to strict compliance with the provisions of the sanitary code dealers in food stuffs of all kinds, from the push cart peddler to the Broadway and Fifth avenue restaurateur. The following suggestions made by the Committee on Food Inspection have been passed by the board:

As regards stand and push carts or other open retainers, only coverings of a fixed and permanent character will be deemed to comply with the law.
Candy must be covered at all times so as to protect it from dust, dirt, flies and excessive handling, while all breadstuffs, cakes, pies or confectionery must be protected by a suitable covering or by being enclosed. The board suggests that glass cases, with wire screens in the rear, be used.
Groceries, and even meats and fish are to be covered at all times, and in the kitchens and serving rooms of restaurants, food is not to be left uncovered.

BODIES OF UNIDENTIFIED VICTIMS TO BE HELD

Canadian Pacific Officials Deny That Wreck Dead Will Be Buried Immediately.

A report that all the unidentified dead of the Empress of Ireland were to be buried this week at Quebec was denied to-day in the following telegram to W. H. Snell, local general agent of the Canadian Pacific, No.
454 Broadway, from W. G. Annable, general passenger agent of the Atlantic service at Montreal.

"Newspaper reports stating that all unidentified dead of the Empress of Ireland would be buried at Quebec this week incorrect. Only those whose relatives have requested that burial be made will be buried.
"Other bodies will be held in vault for some time."
